

Music in

Music in Sandton Central is a series of lunchtime concerts held at the Liberty Life Theatre on the Square. It is a popular weekly event for classical music lovers from all over Johannesburg that take place every Friday from 12.45pm – 13.45. Sponsored by the Sandton Central Management District and hosted by the Liberty Life Theatre on the Square, the concerts are seen as integral to Sandton Central and go a long way to create a welcoming cultural heart and soul in the area. Audiences are charged a basic fee of R20 per concert.

Forthcoming Concerts

Friday 23rd November 2007

Piano and Flute recital - Helen Vosloo (Flute) and Malcolm Nay (Piano)

Friday 7 December 2007 (Last concert for the year – Christmas Break)

Duo Musica – Jacob Swart (Piano) and Ivo Ivanov (Violin)

Concerts in the new year will include –

Friday 11 January 2008

The Findlays and Greylings (Violin, Cello, Trumpet and Drums) playing Claude Bolling

Friday 18 January 2008

Sensational young 19 year old American pianist Pallavi Mahidara – her programme will be advised at a later date. She will be performing Rachmaninov in May 2008 with the Johannesburg Philharmonic Orchestra.

Friday 25 January 2008

Zanta Hofmeyr - Violin Thelma Hofmeyr , (soprano) Malané Hofmeyr-Burger (Flute) and Annika Burke Piano) – A Hofmeyr family concert

Visit www.sandtoncentral.co.za or call Pat and Ian Dunbar on (011) 807 0297 the Liberty Life Theatre on the Square on 011 883-8606 or Sandton Central on (011) 784 8400

